OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER

This Annual Uniform Crime Report portrays the nature, volume and extent of crime in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania during 1990. All statistics presented in this publication have been accumulated through direct report submission by each law enforcement agency participating in the Pennsylvania Uniform Crime Reporting Program. In turn, our State Program has furnished data to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for tabulation of the national crime figures and inclusion in their annual publication, Crime in the United States.

The report will assist law enforcement officers in adjusting their efforts in the fight against crime. It also provides valuable information for other interested agencies, both public and private, which have similar goals. We sincerely hope that it will also create an awareness within the general public that crime exists as a serious problem within our communities and requires attention from every segment of society. Criminal activity cannot be eliminated by law enforcement agencies acting alone, it requires the efforts of every law-abiding citizen as well.

While criminal offenses and related clearances by individual jurisdictions are reported in the appendages of this report, these listings are not intended to show who investigates the crimes or clears the offenses. The purpose of these listings is to aid in the determination of those factors which are indicative of the particular crime problems of a given area.

This report has been made possible through the concerted efforts of the many law enforcement agencies of the Commonwealth who consistently submitted the essential data. Recognition is given to the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association which has constantly advocated and supported the concept of a unified reporting program for our Commonwealth. Such effort and support is sincerely and deeply appreciated and it is on behalf of these dedicated public servants that this Annual Uniform Crime Report is presented.

Respectfully submitted,

Glenn A. Walp

INTRODUCTION

THE PROGRAM

The Pennsylvania Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program was established as a result of the Uniform Criminal Statistics Act of 1970 (71 P.S. 307.8 and 307.9). Powers and duties concerning criminal statistics were given to the Office of Attorney General. In October 1973, the Uniform Crime Reporting duties set forth in this Act were transferred to the Commissioner of the Pennsylvania State Police by Reorganization Plan No. 7 of 1973 (71 P.S. 755-7).

The counterpart of the Pennsylvania UCR Program is the National UCR Program under the direction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). This national program is the result of a need for nationwide and uniform compilation of law enforcement data. Uniform Crime Reports, developed by a committee of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), were first collected in 1930. The IACP continues to serve in an advisory capacity to the FBI in its operation of the National program. In our State program, the UCR Committee of the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association was instrumental in the development of the program.

The primary objectives of the Pennsylvania UCR Program are to inform the Governor, Legislature, other governmental officials and the public as to the nature of the crime problem in Pennsylvania and to provide law enforcement administrators with criminal statistics for administrative and operational purposes.

The National UCR Program is a continually expanding program, with more law enforcement agencies participating each year. Each year additional states mandate submission of UCR data by their police agencies, the ultimate goal being that every police agency in the Nation submit their crime data. Although we are all aware of its shortcomings, Uniform Crime Report data is still the best crime information available. The returns completed by law enforcement agencies deal only with offenses that come to their attention, and no data is routinely collected to measure the total amount of crime that actually occurs. Some studies indicate that many of the offenses committed are not reported to the police. As an example, offenses are less likely to be reported to police agencies when they are considered less serious or trivial by the general public.

There are many factors which will affect the type and volume of crime that occurs from place to place. Some of these are listed in "Crime in the United States, Uniform Crime Reports, 1990" page v, and are reprinted on the following page.

CRIME FACTORS

Population density and degree of urbanization of locality and its surrounding area.
Variations in composition of the population, particularly youth concentration.
Stability of population with respect to residents' mobility, commuting patterns and transient factors.
Modes of transportation and highway system.
Economic conditions, including median income, destitution and job availability.
Cultural conditions, such as educational, recreational and religious characteristics.
Family conditions with respect to divorce and family cohesiveness.
Climate.
Effective strength of law enforcement agencies.
Administrative and investigative emphases of law enforcement.
Policies of other components of the criminal justice system (i.e., prosecutorial, judicial, correctional and probational).
Attitudes of citizenry toward crime.
Crime reporting practices of citizenry.

CLASSIFICATION OF OFFENSES

Uniformity in reporting under the Pennsylvania system is based upon the proper classifications of offenses by police. The adoption of the Federal system of reporting included the utilization of the offense classifications of that system. Law enforcement personnel in this State have made accurate application of those classifications in the reports submitted to the program.

In view of the need for compatibility with the Federal system, the categories of offense classification employed in this program remain the same as those employed on the national level. Care must be taken by police officers in classifying because of the conflicts between this system and the Pennsylvania Crimes Code.

Part I Offenses

Offense data consists of information that has been extracted from reports of crimes that have come to the attention of Pennsylvania law enforcement agencies. CALCULATION OF RATES

The Uniform Crime Reporting Program provides data for police administrators to measure local problems, but to facilitate this function it is sometimes necessary to convert the data into rates or percentages. Simple formulas are presented to assist in these computations.

Crime Rates

One of the most useful crime statistics is the crime rate which is the number of offenses per 100,000 persons. This rate can be calculated regardless of the number of inhabitants in your jurisdiction. To compute rates, divide your jurisdiction's population into 100,000 and multiply the number of offenses by that answer.

Example:

$$\frac{100{,}000}{50{,}000 \text{ population}} = 2 \times 182 \text{ robberies} = 364$$

Your robbery rate would be 364 per 100,000 population.

Clearance Rates

The percentage of crimes cleared by arrest is obtained by dividing the number of offenses cleared by the number of actual offenses known. This answer is then multiplied by 100.

Example:

$$\frac{147 \text{ Robberies cleared}}{364 \text{ Robberies known}} = 0.404 \times 100 = 40.4\%$$

Your percentage of clearance for robbery is 40.4 percent.

Law Enforcement Employee Rates

These rates are conventionally expressed as the number of employees per 1,000 population. The rate is computed by dividing the population into 1,000 and in turn multiplying the number of employees by this answer.

Example:

$$\frac{1{,}000}{50{,}000 \text{ population}} = 0.02 \times 102 \text{ employees} = 2.04$$

Your rate is 2.0 employees per 1,000 population.

SUMMARY OF CRIME IN PENNSYLVANIA, 1990

There were 987,037 actual crimes of all types reported to the UCR Program by Pennsylvania law enforcement agencies. This total represents a rate of 8,195.2 crimes per 100,000 estimated population, an increase of 4.1 percent over last year's total of 948,320 actual crimes.

Crime Index Offenses are considered to be both most serious and most likely to be reported and are used nationally as the standard base for comparisons. They include: murder and nonnegligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny-theft, motor vehicle theft and arson. Manslaughter by negligence is a Part I crime, but is not considered as part of the Crime Index.

This year, 408,546 Crime Index offenses were reported and confirmed by Pennsylvania police after investigation. Actually, 417,149 Crime Index offenses were reported, but 2.1 percent or 8,603 were unfounded following investigation, ranging from 1.5 percent unfounded for larceny to 12.3 percent unfounded for rape. Crime Index offenses increased by 0.9 percent over last year's total of 404,738 Crime Index offenses. The Crime Index rate this year was 3,392.1.

In addition, 578,338 Part II Offenses were reported with a rate of 4,801.9 per 100,000 population. This is an increase of 6.4 percent over the 543,500 Part II Offenses reported the previous year. Part II Offenses include: other assaults, forgery and counterfeiting, fraud, embezzlement, stolen property, vandalism, weapons, prostitution, other sex offenses, drug abuse violations, gambling, offenses against the family, driving under the influence, liquor law violations, drunkenness, disorderly conduct, vagrancy and all other offenses.

This year, 46.7 percent of all offenses were cleared; 25.2 percent of the Crime Index offenses and 61.8 percent of all Part II Offenses.

The following table summarizes the combined Part I and Part II Offense totals.

Crime Reported to Police, 1990

Offense Category	Offenses	Percent Distribution	Rate per 100,000 Population	Percent Change from 1989	Clearances	Percent Cleared
All Categories	987,037	100.0	8,195.2	4.1	460,607	46.7
Part I Offenses	408,699	41.4	3,393.4	1.0	102,926	25.1
(Crime Index Offenses)	(408,546)	(41.4)	(3,392.1)	(0.9)	(102,782)	(25.2)
Part II Offenses	578,338	58.6	4,801.9	6.4	357,681	61.8

NOTE: In some tables of this report, individual percentages, rates, etc., may not equal totals because of rounding.

Pennsylvania is an urban state, with 85.1 percent of its population living within Metropolitan Statistical Areas.* 91.3 percent of the Crime Index offenses and 87.7 percent of Part II Offenses occurred within Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSA), as summarized in the following table:

Crimes Reported by Population Grouping, 1990

Population Group	Crime Index Offenses			Part II Offenses
	Offenses	Rate per 100,000 Population	Percent Distribution	Offenses	Rate per 100,000 Population	Percent Distribution
State Total	408,546	3,392.1	100.0	578,338	4,801.8	100.0
Met. Stat. Areas (MSA)	(372,819)	(3,637.6)	(91.3)	(506,962)	(4,946.4)	(87.7)
MSA Core Cities	200,053	6,631.3	49.0	198,872	6,592.1	34.4
MSA Suburban Jurisdictions	172,766	2,388.8	42.3	308,090	4,259.9	53.3
Non-MSA Jurisdictions	19,905	2,655.6	4.9	45,650	6,090.3	7.9
Rural Jurisdictions	15,822	1,513.5	3.9	25,726	2,460.9	4.4

It should be noted that the crime rate of core city jurisdictions in MSA's continued to be much higher than the suburban jurisdictions. The volume of offenses was higher in suburban jurisdictions than in the core jurisdictions and was also the highest among all population groups.

NOTE: No attempt is made throughout this report to correct for the influx of seasonal, temporary residents and tourists during the year. Crime rates are based upon the permanent population.

* A Metropolitan Statistical Area is composed of an entire county or group of counties with at least one core city, with the whole area meeting criteria of certain metropolitan characteristics established by the United States Bureau of the Census.

ARRESTS

Arrests are primarily a measure of success in police investigation in relation to the criminal offenses taking place within a community. Arrest practices, policies and enforcement emphasis will vary from place to place and from time to time within a community. Arrests do, however, provide a useful indicator as to the age, sex and race of persons involved in criminal acts, especially for those crimes which have high solution rates.

A total of 460,122 arrests were made in Pennsylvania, a 5.4 percent increase over last year. As indicated in the table below, Part II Offense arrests totaled 359,167 or 78.1 percent of all arrests, a 6.2 percent increase over last year. Part I Offense arrests numbered 100,955 or 21.9 percent of all arrests, increasing by 2.5 percent.

Arrests by Offense Category, 1990

Offense Category	Arrests	Percent Distribution	Rate per 100,000 Population	Percent Change from 1989
All Categories	460,122	100.0	3,820.3	5.4

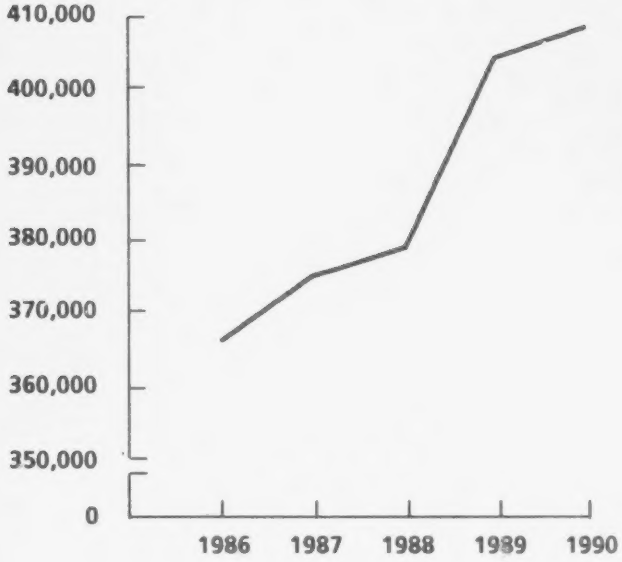
As outlined in Tables 12, 13 and 14, 82.3 percent or 378,552 arrestees were male, and 17.7 percent or 81,570 arrestees were female. 74.0 percent or 340,460 were White, 25.8 percent or 118,621 were Black, and 0.2 percent or 1,041 were Other Races. 21.0 percent or 96,702 of the arrestees were under 18 years old, and 55.3 percent or 254,427 of the arrestees were under 25 years old. Male arrestees increased by 4.7 percent and arrests of Whites increased by 5.8 percent, while juvenile arrests decreased by 1.1 percent.

Juvenile arrestees were disposed of as follows: 25.2 percent or 24,334 were handled within the police department and released; 35.1 percent or 33,899 were sent to Juvenile Court or the Juvenile Court Probation Officer; 0.8 percent or 755 were referred to welfare agencies; 0.5 percent or 485 were referred to other police agencies; and 38.5 percent or 37,229 were referred to criminal or adult court, usually the district magistrate for specified petty crimes as underage drinking, shoplifting, etc.

Adults arrested and counted for UCR purposes in Pennsylvania are those that are formally charged with a crime. Crime suspects who are questioned and released are not counted as arrested. A juvenile is counted as arrested when circumstances are such that if he or she were an adult an arrest would be tallied.

CRIME INDEX OFFENSES



DEFINITION: Crime Index offenses are crimes that are considered by law enforcement to be the most serious crimes that readily come to the attention of police and occur with a frequency great enough to be reported as a separate category. Crime Index offenses are used nationally as a basis for comparison of criminal activity.

SUMMARY

There were 408,546 Crime Index offenses reported to Pennsylvania police departments, an average of 1,119.3 each day or one every one minute and 17 seconds. This is an increase of 0.9 percent over the 404,738 reported last year. The Crime Index rate was 3,392.1.

102,782 or 25.2 percent of the Crime Index offenses were cleared this year, an increase over the 24.7 percent clearance rate achieved last year. Murder had the highest clearance rate at 80.7 percent while burglary with a 16.6 percent clearance rate was lowest.

CRIME INDEX DISTRIBUTION BY COMMON HUMAN SERVICE REGIONS

In 1967, the Governor's Office proclaimed six "Common Human Service Regions" (CHSR) in Pennsylvania, consisting of generally comparative counties in terms of interrelated needs and populations. See Figure D. Accordingly, the tables in this report are so organized, with the individual counties being identified alphabetically within the CHSRs.

These regions are considered "standardized" for Commonwealth planning and reporting purposes. They should not be confused with Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSA), although the counties in the Southeast CHSR coincide with the Pennsylvania area of the Philadelphia MSA.

The following table summarizes the distribution of Crime Index offenses among these six regions.

CRIME INDEX DISTRIBUTION BY METROPOLITAN STATISTICAL AREAS (MSA)

Table 4 summarizes the 15 MSA's in Pennsylvania and additionally includes Susquehanna County, which is a part of the Binghamton, New York MSA. A total of 34 counties are involved. Counties in New Jersey which are part of the Allentown-Bethlehem-Easton MSA and the Philadelphia MSA are not included in this report.

Highest Crime Index rates were produced by the Philadelphia MSA (4,715.8) and the State College MSA (3,660.9). The lowest Crime Index rate occurred in the Johnstown MSA (1,599.5).

Of significance in this table are the high Crime Index rates shown by core cities of the MSA's in contrast to the rates in their suburbs. Some examples are: Harrisburg, 10,153.6 against a suburban rate of 2,619.9; Pittsburgh, 8,728.5 against 2,097.1; Reading, 8,762.7 against 1,942.8; York, 6,864.0 against 2,286.0 and Lancaster, 6,941.5 against 2,229.1.

Of core cities', Crime Index rates were generally double that of their suburbs. In fact, the Crime Index rate in Johnstown, Pittsburgh and Reading were over four times the rate of its suburbs; and in Harrisburg and York, more than three times.

Nine MSAs showed increases and six MSAs showed decreases in Crime Index offenses. The highest rate of increase was reported for Reading MSA, 19.9 percent, from 9,714 offenses last year to 11,651 offenses. Sharon MSA showed the largest decrease, 12.8 percent.

Pennsylvania MSA Crime Index offenses increased by 0.5 percent. The MSA core city jurisdictions increased by 0.1 percent; the MSA suburban jurisdictions increased by 1.0 percent; rural jurisdictions increased by 2.9 percent; and non-MSA jurisdictions increased by 7.4 percent.

VALUE OF PROPERTY STOLEN AND RECOVERED

The total value of property stolen this year in Pennsylvania was $524,085,803 of which 62.5 percent or $327,564,432 was recovered. VIOLENT CRIME

DEFINITION: The Crime Index categories of murder and nonnegligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault comprise the general category of "Violent Crime".

Percent Change from Previous Year		3.8	-1.1	6.1	11.8
Percent Change from Base Year		3.8	2.7	8.9	21.8

SUMMARY

There were 51,008 violent crimes reported to Pennsylvania police departments this year, an average of 140 each day or one every 10 minutes and 18 seconds. This is an increase of 11.8 percent over the 45,634 violent crimes last year. Violent crime represented 12.5 percent of the Crime Index. The violent crime rate was 423.5.

This year 50.6 percent or 25,822 violent crimes were cleared, a decrease from the 53.2 percent clearance rate last year. In general, clearances of violent crime are much higher than property crime, because they are committed more openly, have more witnesses and generate a higher degree of intensity in the way of police investigation.

CRIME INDEX OFFENSES
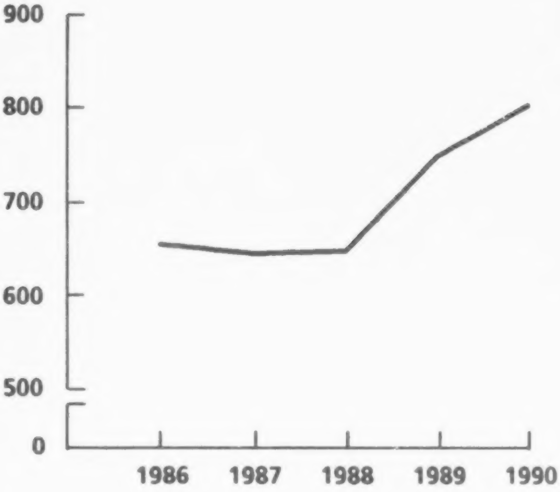
MURDER AND NONNEGLIGENT MANSLAUGHTER



DEFINITION: Murder and nonnegligent manslaughter is the unlawful killing of a human being by another. Murder and nonnegligent manslaughter is classified and scored on the basis of police investigation as opposed to any decision of a court, coroner, jury, or other judicial body. Manslaughters by negligence and justifiable homicides are not included in this analysis.

Murder	1986	1987	1988	1989	1990
Number of Offenses	656	645	649	747	802
Percent Change from Previous Year		-1.7	0.6	15.1	7.4
Percent Change from Base Year		-1.7	-1.1	13.9	22.3

SUMMARY

There were 802 murders reported to Pennsylvania police departments this year, an average of 2.2 each day or one every 10 hours and 55 minutes. Murder comprised 0.2 percent of all index crimes and 1.6 percent of all violent crimes. The murder rate was 6.7 per 100,000 population.

There was an increase of 55 murders or 7.4 percent from the 747 last year.

Of the 802 murders, 647 or 80.7 percent were cleared. This represents the highest clearance rate of any of the Crime Index offenses.

In addition to the 802 homicides reported, 24 "justifiable homicides" were reported by police agencies. Such homicides are killings of felons by police officers (10) or by private citizens (14). Justifiable homicides are omitted from analyses of homicides presented in this report.

HOMICIDE SITUATIONS

The 802 homicide victims were killed in a total of 772 homicide situations involving multiple or single victims and multiple or single known or unknown offenders, as indicated in the following table. 58.8 percent or 454 homicide situations involved a single victim and a single offender; 189 incidents or 24.5 percent involved 195 or 24.3 percent of the victims where the offenders were unknown; 95 of the victims were in multiple offender situations.

AGE, RACE AND SEX OF VICTIMS

Murder victims were predominately male, accounting for 74.2 percent of the total. Victim analysis by race discloses that 43.4 percent were White and 56.6 percent were Non-white. The largest number of victims were between the ages of 20 to 29 - 32.0 percent of the total. See Table 5.

AGE, RACE AND SEX OF KNOWN OFFENDERS

Reports on known offenders indicate that the major portion was male, 89.7 percent. Known offender analysis by race discloses that 41.0 percent were White and 59.0 percent were Non-white. The largest number of known offenders were between the ages of 15 and 24 - 43.4 percent of the total. See Table 6.

MURDER WEAPONS

As outlined in the following table and Figure H, firearms were predominately the weapons used in murder - 54.7 percent. Handguns alone accounted for 297 or 37.0 percent of murders. 149 or 18.6 percent resulted from stabbings.

RELATIONSHIP OF VICTIMS TO OFFENDERS

The fact that murder is primarily a problem of society, beyond control of the law enforcement community, is emphasized by the fact that over one half of the victims were related to or acquainted with their assailants. This is outlined in the table below and illustrated in Figure I.

The table below and Figure J indicate that more than one third of reported murders resulted from arguments and nearly one in every five murders resulted from a felonious act. Again, the majority of the circumstances are beyond control of the law enforcement community.

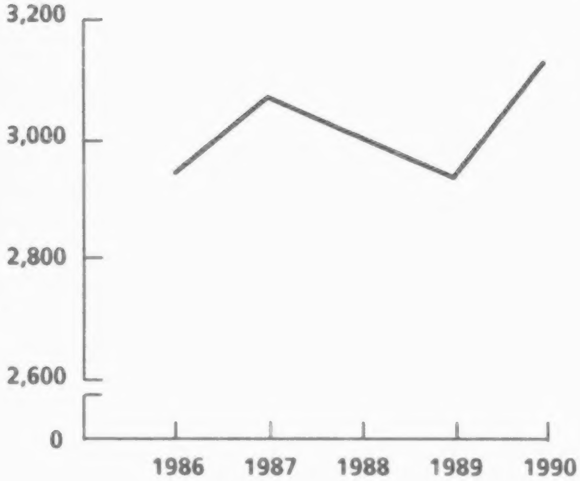
CRIME INDEX OFFENSES
FORCIBLE RAPE



DEFINITION: Forcible rape is the carnal knowledge of a female through the use of force or the threat of force. Assaults or attempts to commit forcible rape are included; however, statutory rape (without force) is not counted. Crime counts in this category are limited to actual offenses of forcible rape or attempts, as established by police investigation.

Number of Offenses	2,942	3,070	3,004	2,938	3,130
Percent Change from Previous Year		4.4	-2.1	-2.2	6.5
Percent Change from Base Year		4.4	2.1	-0.1	6.4

SUMMARY

There were 3,130 forcible rape offenses reported to Pennsylvania police departments, an average of 9 each day or one reported every 2 hours and 48 minutes. This is an increase of 6.5 percent from the 2,938 reported last year. Forcible rape represented 0.8 percent of the Crime Index and 6.1 percent of the Violent Crime Index. While the forcible rape rate this year was 26.0, the rate per 100,000 estimated females in Pennsylvania was 50.6 which places the index in its proper perspective as a victim rate, since it equates the number of crimes per unit of related population. There were 2,676 or 85.5 percent actual rapes and 454 or 14.5 percent attempted rapes.

Of all the Crime Index offenses, law enforcement officials recognize rape as one of the most underreported crimes, primarily because of fear and/or embarrassment on the part of the victim. 437 additional cases reported this year were unfounded by police investigation.

Attempted murders are included in this category.

SUMMARY

There were 578,338 Part II Offenses reported to Pennsylvania police departments, an average of 1,584 each day or one every 55 seconds. Offenses increased for seventeen categories and decreased for one category, for a net increase in Part II Offenses of 6.4 percent. The Part II Offense rate per 100,000 was 4,801.8. Over half (58.6 percent) of all crimes reported were Part II Offenses.

This year 357,681 or 61.8 percent of Part II Offenses were cleared, resulting in increases of both the number and the percent cleared over last year.

Extremely high clearance rates (over 95 percent) were achieved for six Part II Offenses: prostitution, gambling, offenses against family and children, driving under the influence, liquor law violations and drunkenness.

On the other hand, a very low clearance rate of 13.3 percent was attained for vandalism, the largest Part II Offense by volume.

In general, the Part II Offenses with the highest clearance rates were those which are usually observed at the time of commission.

EIGHT LEADING PART II OFFENSES

While there are eighteen distinct Part II Offense categories, over 90 percent of the offenses reported were in only eight categories. These eight offenses, summarized in the following table, can be considered to be the "leaders" among Part II Offenses in volume and rate per 100,000 population.

PERSONS CHARGED AND DISPOSITIONS

The collection of data of persons arrested and formally charged, plus the subsequent dispositions, is an important tool in the records-keeping process for the modern police administrator. This collection offers an insight into the effectiveness of a department with regard to the quality of police investigation, case preparation, and court presentation toward the successful prosecution of the criminal element.

PERSONS CHARGED

There were 434,548 persons arrested and charged with criminal offenses this year. Physical arrests resulted in charges against 204,888 persons or 47.1 percent. Criminal citations were issued to 229,660 persons or 52.9 percent.

Of the 97,364 persons charged with Crime Index offenses, 73,446 or 75.4 percent were arrested and arraigned, while 23,918 or 24.6 percent received citations. A total of 25,211 violent crime offenders were charged this year. Physical arrests of violent crime offenders totaled 23,314 or 92.5 percent, and citations were issued to 1,897 violent crime offenders or 7.5 percent. Property crime offenders were charged in 72,153 incidents. Physical arrests of Property crime offenders occurred in 50,132 cases or 69.5 percent, and citations were issued to 22,021 Property crime offenders or 30.5 percent. This latter group was composed primarily of larceny-theft offenders, arrested for "summary offenses," such as shoplifting.

Part II offenders charged amounted to 337,073 persons. Physical arrests and arraignments took place in 131,344 cases or 39.0 percent, and citations were issued to 205,729 individuals or 61.0 percent. A review indicates that citations were issued to 85.7 percent of persons charged with liquor law violations and to the majority of persons charged with fraud, vandalism, disorderly conduct, vagrancy, and all other offenses.

DISPOSITIONS

The 260,549 dispositions represent 60.0 percent of the 434,548 persons charged this year. This difference is partly due to dispositions of charges from prior years and pending dispositions from persons charged this year.

Overall, 169,609 persons or 65.1 percent were found guilty of the offense charged; 14,550 or 5.6 percent, guilty of a lesser offense; 42,491 or 16.3 percent acquitted or dismissed; and 33,899 or 13.0 percent, referred to Juvenile Court.

Dispositions of Crime Index offenders were distributed as follows: 29,005 or 41.6 percent were guilty as charged; 7,325 or 10.5 percent, guilty of a lesser offense; 14,801 or 21.2 percent, acquitted or dismissed; 18,579 or 26.7 percent, referred to Juvenile Court. However, 56.7 percent of adults prosecuted for Crime Index offenses were found guilty of the offense charged, and 14.3 percent were found guilty of a lesser offense.

Murder - 56.1 percent and larceny-theft - 56.0 percent had the highest rates of conviction among the Crime Index offenses. Robbery - 36.0 percent and aggravated assault - 36.6 percent had the highest rates of acquittals or dismissals among Crime Index offenses. High rates among Crime Index offenses for juveniles referred to Juvenile Court were reported for motor vehicle theft - 57.7 percent, arson - 46.7 percent and burglary - 33.2 percent. Of note, the acquittal-dismissal rate for violent crime was 35.3 percent as opposed to a 15.3 percent acquittal-dismissal rate for property crime.

The dispositions of persons charged with Part II Offenses were distributed as follows: 140,562 or 73.7 percent were guilty as charged; 7,197 or 3.8 percent were guilty of a lesser offense; 27,665 or 14.5 percent, acquitted or dismissed; 15,312 or 8.0 percent, referred to Juvenile Court.

The highest conviction rates for persons charged with Part II Offenses were reported for liquor law violations - 87.4 percent and driving under the influence - 88.2 percent. High dismissal rates were reported for other assaults - 30.7 percent, gambling - 26.4 percent and drunkenness - 22.6 percent. Drunkenness acquittal rates are influenced by the practice in some areas of apprehending individuals for drunkenness for their own safety and releasing them when they have regained sobriety.

JUVENILES

In addition to the 33,899 or 7.8 percent juveniles charged and subsequently referred to Juvenile Court, 37,229 or 8.6 percent were charged as adults, even though they were under 18 years old. This latter group represents youths apprehended generally for summary offenses, such as shoplifting, teenage drinking, vandalism or disorderly conduct. Included in the category of persons charged and involved in criminal judicial proceedings this year were 71,128 juveniles, 16.4 percent of the total.

CRIME VICTIMS

Recently, a program was initiated to collect information on the characteristics of victims of crimes in Pennsylvania. This is in addition to the homicide victim reporting system already in place, the results of which are presented on pages 33-38. Approximately 97 percent of the reporting agencies in the State provided statistics on age, sex and race of crime victims by offense classification. This information is summarized in the table below and on the facing page.

Almost two-thirds of the reported crime victims were involved in three offense categories: larceny-theft, 29.6 percent; vandalism - 20.8 percent; and burglary - 12.9 percent.

The largest number of crime victims, accounting for 13.5 percent of those reported, were between the ages of 25 and 29.

SUMMARY

There were 26,138 full-time law enforcement employees in Pennsylvania this year, including the State Police. This is an increase of 2.5 percent over last year.

The number of full-time police officers increased by 3.1 percent, the second increase in fourteen years. The number of civilian employees decreased by 0.5 percent this year.

Full-time police officers made up 85.2 percent of police departments and civilian employees 14.8 percent. There were 2.2 full-time employees, 1.9 officers and 0.3 civilians per 1,000 population.

The 985 local police jurisdictions (State total less Pennsylvania State Police and Pennsylvania Bureau of Narcotics Investigation and Drug Control) accounted for 20,805 full-time law enforcement employees, or 79.6 percent of the State total. 87.2 percent or 18,146 of these 20,805 local police agency employees were full-time officers and 2,659 or 12.8 percent were civilians.

More than half of the police departments reporting to the Pennsylvania UCR Program (517 out of 987) employed less than six full-time officers (See following table). 91.8 percent (906) of the departments reported 25 or fewer full-time officers; while at the other end of the scale, only 4 departments - less than 1 percent of the total - employed more than 200.

Northwest CHSR	1,602	6.4	1.6	1,399	6.4	1.4

The Central CHSR employed the fewest law enforcement 1,568 or 6.2 percent of the total, followed closely by the Northwest CHSR, with 1,602 employees, or 6.4 percent of the total (Table above and Table 16). The Central CHSR reported the lowest number of personnel and police officers per 1,000 population, 1.5 and 1.3 respectively.

*Pennsylvania State Police Administration personnel and Liquor Control Enforcement personnel are not included.

The Southeast CHSR reported the largest number of employees, 11,563, or 45.9 percent of the total, and the highest number of personnel and police officers per 1,000 population, 3.0 and 2.6 respectively. However, excluding Philadelphia County, which employs approximately 70 percent of the law enforcement personnel in the Southeast CHSR, there were 1.8 total employees and 1.5 officers per 1,000 for the remaining population.

The Southwest CHSR, the second largest law enforcement employer, had 1.3 total employees and 1.1 officers per 1,000 population, if Allegheny County was excluded. Allegheny County, which includes the City of Pittsburgh, accounts for over 65 percent of the law enforcement employees in the Southwest CHSR.

The Pennsylvania State Police made up only 5 percent of the police officers in the Southeast and 17 percent of the officers in the Southwest CHSR, compared to 26-44 percent of the police officers in the remaining four more rural CHSRs. In these CHSRs, full-time police officers would average one officer or less per 1,000 population without PSP protection.

DISTRIBUTION OF LAW ENFORCEMENT EMPLOYEES BY SEX

85.6 percent of the reported 25,170 full-time personnel were males, and 14.4 percent were females. Only 7.8 percent of police officers were women. However, during the past six years female full-time officers have increased by 66.4 percent while their male counterparts have decreased by 2.0 percent. Women have filled at least half of civilian positions for the past fourteen years. This year 60.7 percent of civilians were women.

Local police departments in Philadelphia and Allegheny counties employed the largest numbers of female officers, 1,005 and 294, respectively (Table 16). The Southeast and the Southwest CHSRs reported the highest percentages of female officers in local police departments, 11.3 and 14.3 percent, while the Northeast CHSR had the lowest percentage, 2.9 percent.

LAW ENFORCEMENT EMPLOYEES IN THE FIFTEEN LARGEST POLICE DEPARTMENTS

The 15 police departments with the greatest numbers of full-time law enforcement employees are identified in the following table. In the aggregate, these 15 departments contributed 53.1 percent of the full-time law enforcement employees and 53.5 percent of the full-time police officers employed by the 985 local police departments in the Pennsylvania UCR System.

There were 3,394 assaults on police officers this year (Table 17), an increase of 22.7 percent from last year. The assault rate per 100 officers was 15.4, up from a rate of of 12.8 last year.

This year 3,276 assaults, 96.5 percent, were cleared. Last year there were 2,644 clearances, for a clearance rate of 95.6 percent.

This year Philadelphia experienced the highest assault rate, 25.2. Statewide, five of the nine population groups had higher rates than last year.

GENERAL DISCUSSION

Injuries were sustained by 37.2 percent of the law enforcement officers assaulted this year. There were 1,263 assaults with injury reported, for an assault with injury rate of 5.7 per 100 full-time officers, down from last year. Municipalities 25,000 - 50,000 had the highest assault with injury rate, 8.8 percent and Sheriffs and Other County Police had the lowest rate, 1.3 per 100 full-time officers.

Statewide, 96.5 percent of the assaults on police officers were cleared by arrests. Five of the nine population groups had clearance rates of 95 percent or above (Table 17), and clearance rates of 95 percent or more were reported for assaults in eight of the eleven categories of police activity (Table 21).

Personal weapons (hands, fists, feet, etc.) were employed in 87.9 percent of the assaults on Pennsylvania police officers this year (Table 18, Figure M). 7.5 percent of the assaults were committed with dangerous weapons other than firearms or cutting instruments, while assaults with firearms and knives or other cutting instruments accounted for 2.3 and 2.2 percent of attacks, respectively.

Assaults with dangerous weapons other than firearms or cutting instruments produced the highest rate of personal injury; 42.2 percent of the officers attacked with these weapons were injured (Table 19).

Forty percent of the assaults happened while officers were responding to disturbance calls (Table 20). This category of police activity, together with officers attempting other arrests,* officers investigating suspicious persons or circumstances and officers engaged in traffic pursuits and stops, accounted for 79 percent of all assaults.

Personal weapons, predominantly, were employed in the assaults which took place during most types of police activity (Table 22). Eighty-four percent of the police officers were assigned to vehicle patrols at the time of assaults (Table 23). Forty-one percent of the assaults on officers assigned to two-men vehicles happened while the officers were responding to disturbance calls (Table 24). Officers assigned to one-man vehicles received almost two-thirds of the attacks while they were either responding to disturbance calls or attempting other arrests.

Twenty-six percent of assaults on officers on detective or special assignment took place while they were attempting other arrests, and the same percent took place when responding to disturbance calls. Thirty-seven percent of assaults on officers on other assignments occurred when they were miscellaneous assignments.

* At the time of assaults, the officer was making or attempting to make an arrest for an offense other than disturbance call, burglary, robbery, civil disorder or traffic.

More assaults, 493, occurred in December than in any other month (Figure O). Assaults were least frequent in the month of August, when 204 were reported.

Almost half of the reported assaults on police officers were committed between the hours of 8:01 p.m. and 2:00 a.m. (Table 25). Almost one-third occurred during the four-hour period of 8:01 p.m. to 12:00 midnight while the fewest assaults were reported between 6:01 a.m. and 8:00 a.m.

PREFACE FROM THE COURT ADMINISTRATOR

To: The Honorable Chief Justice and the Honorable Justices of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and to the citizens of the Commonwealth

I am pleased to present this report of the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts for the year 1989, summarizing the activities of the Administrative Office as well as those of the advisory boards and committees of the Court.

The year examined in this report will be remembered as a milestone in the Commonwealth's endeavor to fulfill its constitutionally mandated goal of establishing a Unified Judicial System. On May 5, 1989, the combined efforts of the Steering Committee on Statewide Automation, the District Justice Implementation Team and the staff of the Administrative Office resulted in the signing of a contract between the Administrative Office and International Business Machines Corporation (IBM) for the development and installation of an automated District Justice System. As you know, this is but the first step in achieving the Court's goal of establishing a fully integrated statewide judicial computer system.

As the work of the Administrative Office has escalated with the rapid progress of the Judicial Computer Project and other less visible initiatives, so too has the amount and scope of the work of the Supreme Court's advisory boards and committees both increased and broadened. Newly enacted legislation, an even greater number of cases being filed, and increases in the volume of a variety of other judicial functions, such as increased numbers of applications for admission to the Bar, served to make 1989 a year in which more work was undertaken, more changes initiated, and more accomplishments realized than in years past.

With statistics showing little or no general decrease in the current trend toward higher crime rates and increased drug use, the administration of justice will continue in all states to become an ever more complex, time-consuming and difficult task. The Commonwealth's Judiciary will continue to meet the challenge and carry out increasing responsibilities with dedication and conviction in the years ahead.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy M. Sobolevitch
Court Administrator of Pennsylvania

OVERVIEW OF THE PENNSYLVANIA JUDICIAL SYSTEM

A Brief History of the Courts of Pennsylvania

Prior to the State Constitution of 1776, there existed in Pennsylvania a collection of courts, some inherited from the rule of the Duke of York (1664 to 1673), some established by William Penn, and some--such as the Pennsylvania Supreme Court--created by Pennsylvania's Provincial Assembly. Although attempts were made from time to time to create a unified system which would define and organize the powers and jurisdiction of the several courts, these attempts were often nullified in England. It was not until the Pennsylvania Constitution of 1776, which established courts of sessions, courts of common pleas and orphans' courts in each county, that Pennsylvania saw the beginning of a statewide framework for the development of its judicial system.

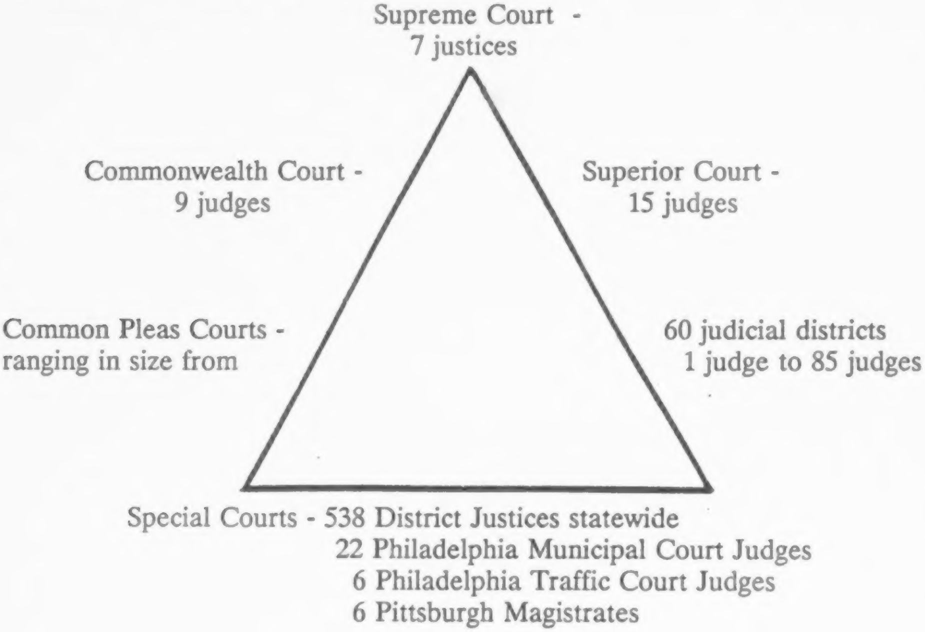
The Constitution of 1790 furthered this development, grouping the counties into judicial districts and providing president judges for the common pleas courts in those districts to ease the burden of the Supreme Court. While the Constitutions of 1838 and 1874 effected changes in the jurisdiction, tenure and election or appointment of members of the judiciary, the basic structure created by the Constitution of 1790 remained essentially unchanged. The Constitution of 1968, however, initiated many judicial reforms and reorganized the judiciary into a Unified Judicial System consisting of the Supreme, Superior and Commonwealth Courts, Courts of Common Pleas, Philadelphia Municipal Court, Pittsburgh Magistrates Court, Philadelphia Traffic Court, Justices of the Peace (popularly known as District Justices) and "such other courts as may be provided by law."

From both judicial and administrative perspectives, the Supreme Court is by Constitutional definition Pennsylvania's highest court. In matters of law, it is the Commonwealth's court of last resort. In matters of administration, the Supreme Court is responsible for maintaining a single, integrated judicial system. Thus, the Court has supervisory authority over all other courts across the state.

In 1981, with the support of the Legislature and approval of the electorate, the jurisdiction of the Superior Court was expanded resulting in a corresponding decrease in the mandated jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. Consequently, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, like the United States Supreme Court, can now exercise discretion in accepting or rejecting most appeals, allowing it to devote greater attention to cases of far-reaching impact, as well as to its constitutional obligation to administer the entire judicial system.

The Structure of Pennsylvania's Unified Judicial System

The Pennsylvania Judiciary is organized in a hierarchial structure which may be visualized in the form of a pyramid:



Supreme Court -
7 justices
Commonwealth Court -
9 judges
Superior Court -
15 judges
Common Pleas Courts - ranging in size from 60 judicial districts
1 judge to 85 judges
Special Courts - 538 District Justices statewide
22 Philadelphia Municipal Court Judges
6 Philadelphia Traffic Court Judges
6 Pittsburgh Magistrates

Special Courts

At the "grass roots" level in the court system are the special courts. In counties other than Philadelphia, these courts are presided over by district justices, formerly known as justices of the peace. District justices have jurisdiction over summary criminal cases, landlord-tenant matters and other civil actions where the amount claimed does not exceed $4,000. They may also accept guilty pleas of misdemeanors of the third degree under certain circumstances. District justices also have jurisdiction to issue warrants and to hold arraignments and preliminary hearings in criminal cases.

Although district justices need not be lawyers, they must complete an educational course and pass a qualifying examination before taking office. They also must participate in one week of continuing education each year. These educational programs are administered by the Minor Judiciary Education Board.

In Philadelphia, the special courts are the Municipal Court and the Traffic Court. Municipal Court is the only special court of Pennsylvania which is a court of record. Its twenty-two judges, who must be lawyers, have jurisdiction over all criminal offenses--other than summary traffic offenses--which are punishable by a term of imprisonment not exceeding five years. Otherwise, the Municipal Court has the same jurisdiction as the district justices except for civil actions, where the amount claimed may not exceed $5,000. The President Judge of Municipal Court is elected for a five year term by other active Municipal Court Judges.

The Philadelphia Traffic Court is composed of six judges who need not be lawyers. Traffic Court Judges must, however, complete a certifying course and pass a qualifying examination, both of which are administered by the Minor Judiciary Education Board. Its jurisdiction covers all summary offenses under the Motor Vehicle Code and related city ordinances. The president judge of the Philadelphia Traffic Court is appointed by the Governor.

The city of Pittsburgh has six police magistrates in addition to the district justices who serve throughout Allegheny County. These magistrates, who need not be lawyers, may issue arrest warrants and preside at arraignments and preliminary hearings for criminal offenses occurring within the city. They also have jurisdiction over criminal cases brought by the city police for violations of city ordinances and other specified offenses. The police magistrates sit on the Pittsburgh Magistrates Court, which has the same jurisdiction as the Philadelphia Traffic Court.

There are no jury trials in the special courts. However, appeals from special court judgments may be taken to Common Pleas Court where the case is heard de novo.

Common Pleas Courts

Common Pleas Courts are courts of general trial jurisdiction. They have original jurisdiction over all cases which are not exclusively assigned to another court. There is one Common Pleas Court for each of sixty judicial districts in the state and three hundred and forty-two authorized Common Pleas Judges. These districts generally coincide geographically with the counties, although seven of the districts are comprised of two counties.

President Judges of courts with seven or fewer judges are those judges in longest continuous service. In courts of eight or more judges, the judges select from their ranks a president judge, who serves in that capacity for a single five year term. President Judges of such courts may not serve consecutive five year terms.

Appellate Court System

There are two levels of appellate courts in Pennsylvania. The first consists of the intermediate appellate courts: the Superior Court with fifteen judges and the Commonwealth Court with nine. The Supreme Court, with seven justices, is Pennsylvania's court of last resort. As the oldest appellate court in the nation, Pennsylvania's Supreme Court predates the United States Supreme Court by sixty-seven years.

In general, appeals from the Common Pleas courts are taken to one of the two intermediate appellate courts, Commonwealth Court or Superior Court.

Commonwealth Court's original jurisdiction includes most civil actions against the Commonwealth, civil actions by the Commonwealth, and matters involving the Election Code. The Court's appellate jurisdiction encompasses appeals relative to decisions of administrative agencies and civil or criminal appeals for Common Pleas Courts in which the Commonwealth or administrative agencies are involved; interpretation of home rule charters, local ordinances or legislative acts governing local governments; and appeals from local administrative agencies. Certain matters which relate to non-profit corporations and eminent domain proceedings are also part of Commonwealth Court's appellate jurisdiction.

Superior Court has limited original jurisdiction and appellate jurisdiction in cases not within the specific statutory jurisdiction of another appellate court.

The Supreme Court has non-exclusive original jurisdiction in cases of habeas corpus, mandamus or prohibition to courts of inferior jurisdiction, and cases of quo warranto as to any officer of statewide jurisdiction.

The Supreme Court's appellate jurisdiction, exercised at the Court's discretion as previously noted, encompasses various types of cases heard as a matter of right, including appeals of cases originating in Commonwealth Court and review of death sentences.

The Supreme Court also has exclusive jurisdiction of appeals from the Legislative Reapportionment Commission, the Judicial Inquiry and Review Board, the Minor Judiciary Education Board, the Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners, and the Disciplinary (Attorneys) Board of the Supreme Court.

Finally, the Court has extraordinary jurisdiction to assume jurisdiction of any case pending before a lower court involving an issue of immediate public importance.

Judicial Qualifications, Election, Tenure, Vacancies

In addition to certain basic requirements such as citizenship and residency, judges are subject to strict standards of conduct and may be removed, suspended or otherwise disciplined for misconduct in office. (Please refer to the report of the Judicial Inquiry and Review Board.)

All Supreme Court justices and judges within the system are elected to ten-year terms, with the exception of judges of Philadelphia's Municipal and Traffic Courts and District Justices, who are elected to terms of six years, and judges of Pittsburgh Magistrates Court, who are appointed to four-year terms by the mayor. Vacancies may be filled by gubernatorial appointment, subject to Senate confirmation, until such time as the vacancy is filled by election.

The "merit retention" provision of Pennsylvania's Constitution allows justices of the Supreme Court and judges to run for reelection on a "yes-no" vote, without ballot reference to political affiliation. This provision was designed to remove judges from the pressures of the political arena once they begin their first term of office.

Mandatory retirement age for judges is seventy years, although retired judges may continue to serve as senior judges to ease court backlogs, with the approval of the Supreme Court.

As is true of president judges of all courts of seven or fewer judges, the Chief Justice of Pennsylvania attains that office by virtue of having the longest continuous service among the seven Supreme Court Justices.

Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts

Established in January 1969 following the Constitutional Convention of 1967-68, the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts (AOPC) is responsible for the "prompt and proper disposition of the business of the courts," as defined by Pennsylvania's Supreme Court in the Pennsylvania Rules of Judicial Administration. Rules 501 through 507 outline the Court Administrator's powers, tasks and responsibilities in carrying out the Supreme Court's Constitutionally-provided authority for supervision and administration of all courts and the minor judiciary.

Functions of the Administrative Office are carried out through offices in Philadelphia and Harrisburg. Four of the Administrative Office's eight operational units are located in Philadelphia: Court Management, Research, Legal and Judicial Services. The Court Administrator of Pennsylvania's office is also located in Philadelphia.

In the Harrisburg area, four operational units exist: Administration (Budget\Accounting, Payroll, Benefits), the Judicial Computer Project, Data Processing and Communications\ Legislative Affairs.

As part of its supervisory, administrative and long-range planning duties, the AOPC endeavors to:

- review practices, procedures and efficiency of the System;
- develop recommendations for the Supreme Court regarding improvement of the System;
- represent the Judicial System before legislative bodies;
- examine administrative and business methods;
- collect statistical data;
- publish an annual report;
- examine the state of the dockets and make recommendations for the expedition of litigation;
- manage fiscal affairs including budget preparation, approval of disbursements and procurement of goods and services;
- supervise all administrative matters relating to offices engaged in clerical functions;
- maintain personnel records;
- conduct education programs for personnel of the System;
- receive comments and complaints from the public;
- provide legal services to System personnel.

Office of Court Management

The Court Management Office is the primary administrative link between the AOPC and the various court constituencies at all levels of the Unified Judicial System. As such, Court Management provides appropriate supervisory, liaison, analytical and consultative services to the Special and Trial Court systems, including the Minor Judiciary Education Board, and to Prothonotaries and Clerks of Courts across the state.

For the Minor Judiciary Education Board, Court Management provides complete administrative and professional (teaching) staff for certification and continuing education courses for district justices and Philadelphia Bail Commissioners, as well as certification courses for Philadelphia Traffic Court judges and for Pittsburgh Magistrates who are not attorneys.

Additionally, Court Management maintains certified copies of all local court rules adopted by counties and agencies of the Unified Judicial System, develops administrative initiatives with administrators of the Appellate Courts and serves as the AOPC's liaison with the National Center for State Courts' Northeast Regional Office.

The Court Management Office is responsible for monitoring judicial regional assignment districts, essentially groupings of judicial districts, which exist in some parts of the state to assist each other in providing visiting judges to handle court backlogs and cases involving recusals; interfacing with the Domestic Relations Association of Pennsylvania and the Pennsylvania Department of Welfare; and developing working relationships with the many different components of the statewide court system.

Every ten years the Department of Court Management coordinates efforts to reestablish and\or realign the district boundaries of District Justices. Conceptually somewhat akin to the process of redistricting legislative and Congressional districts, District Justice realignment and reestablishment is based on data obtained from the decennial Federal census and guidelines established by the Supreme Court and the Administrative Office. Ultimate decisions regarding reestablishment and\or realignment of districts are the exclusive authority of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Office of Research

The Administrative Office's Research Office analyzes and evaluates the operations of the Unified Judicial System's various components from both a policy and statistical point of view. During any given year, the Office of Research conducts a variety of studies, ranging from case flow management reviews of individual trial courts to statewide surveys of county court expenditures and revenues.

Each month data are collected from the district justice and trial courts on the number and type of new and disposed cases, and the inventory and age of pending information is reviewed, automated, and periodically verified through audits of the county dockets. The Administrative Office, typically through its Court Management unit, uses this information for many purposes, including the monitoring of county court operations consistent with its mandate under the Rules of Judicial Administration.

Within the Research Office, the Docket Transcript Section receives, reviews, and corrects data on all misdemeanor, felony, or escalating summary cases filed in the sixty judicial districts. The information is submitted both on paper forms and computer tapes. Extracts of the data are sent to the Pennsylvania State Police where individual criminal histories ("rap sheets") are compiled. The data base is also used for statistical research by the Administrative Office and other state agencies.

Finally, the Research Office is responsible for designing many of the forms used in the state court system. The development of new forms or the modification of existing forms requires extensive consultation with system personnel, especially the persons who use the forms on a daily basis.

Office of the Chief Counsel

The Office of the Chief Counsel provides advice and counsel to the Court Administrator and to the other units of the Administrative Office while also engaging in a variety of administrative duties.

Specifically, representation of Unified Judicial System personnel -- including those of the various courts of the Commonwealth, the Disciplinary Board, the Judicial Inquiry and Review Board, and the Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners -- in litigation is provided by the Chief Counsel's staff. Actions involving Unified Judicial System personnel include suits filed in the federal district courts which raise various civil rights and constitutional issues. Typical state court proceedings involving personnel include requests for accelerated disposition of private suits, petitions for review of governmental actions and petitions to determine the rights and duties of public officials.

Other significant activities involving Counsel staff are:

- active participation in planning and implementation of the Judicial Computer Project;
- review of leases for appellate court offices and chambers, and for offices of committees, boards and agencies of the Unified Judicial System;
- responding to a wide variety of queries, internal and external.

Office of Communications\ Legislative Affairs

Representation of the Administrative Office to the Executive and Legislative branches of state government and to the media in matters of budget and administration is conducted from the Administrative Office in Harrisburg. The Communications Office monitors the progress of legislation in the General Assembly and, when appropriate, comments on the effect legislation may have on the fiscal and administrative operations of the Judicial System. Communications also serves as a central point to which inquiries about the Judiciary may be directed and from which information about the system may be disseminated.

Judicial Computer Project\ Office of Data Processing

The Administrative Office's Data Processing staff fulfills vital roles both in day-to-day operations of the judicial system and in development of long-term projects to fully automate the various components and levels of the Unified Judicial System.

Day-to-day operations support the AOPC's Office of Administration in processing payrolls, accounting and budgeting functions and personnel systems, as well as supporting data processing needs of the Research Office and other units of the AOPC.

The Office of Data Processing also works in cooperation with the Supreme Court's Statewide Steering Committee on Court Automation toward establishment of a statewide judicial computer system. Known as the Judicial Computer Project (JCP), the statewide system is envisioned to ultimately link by computer network Pennsylvania's District Justices, Common Pleas and appellate Judges and Justices. To accomplish that goal, the Judicial Computer Project consists of two major phases. During the first phase the state's more than 500 district justice offices will be computerized. The second phase, planning for which will begin during implementation of the district justice phase, will include computerization of Pennsylvania's sixty Common Pleas Court systems.

The District Justice phase was formally begun with the signing of a thirty-nine month contract between the Administrative Office and International Business Machines Corporation (IBM) in mid-1989. Since then, data processing staff have faced the challenge of creating and refining -- along with IBM and its various subcontractors -- software programs that would serve district justice offices' current needs, while retaining the capability for expansion as new laws affecting district justice operations are enacted.

As the District Justice phase moves toward the numerous "milestones" outlined in its contract, data processing staff prepare for various stages of system testing. Beta tests using actual district justice staff will measure the system's ease of use and functionality. Software testing will determine if the programs are capable of performing the desired tasks, and finally, pilot site installation will test the system's effectiveness in the environment for which it was designed.

When the new system is fully on-line, all management and tracking requirements for criminal, civil, summary non-traffic, and traffic cases will be computerized. Additionally, collection and disbursement management, case scheduling, statistical analysis and reporting, and communications will be significantly more manageable as part of the new system.

Office of Administration

The Office of Administration, with staff in both Harrisburg and Philadelphia, is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the AOPC, providing support and services to other units of the Administrative Office. Such services include the purchasing of furniture, equipment, goods and supplies for the AOPC; expense accounting, processing reimbursements and other expenditures; benefits counseling and administration; payroll administration for approximately 1600 employees; personnel management and preparation of an annual budget for those portions of the judiciary which are state-funded.

Judicial Services Office

The Judicial Services Office is responsible for planning, coordinating, administering and providing staff support for an extensive schedule of educational conferences, seminars and meetings of the Supreme Court, the Administrative Office and affiliated groups, such as the Conference of State Trial Judges and the President Judges-District Court Administrators Association. Through aggressive negotiation and detailed knowledge of Pennsylvania's hospitality industry, the Office is able to ensure that multi-day conferences proceed effectively under terms which are favorable to the Commonwealth.

Lease negotiations for office space for judicial officers across the Commonwealth are conducted by the Office's staff, subject to final legal review by the Chief Counsel's staff.

The Office also maintains a computerized data bank of contact information for the Unified Judicial System's affiliated groups.

The principal function of the Advisory Committee is to make recommendations to the Supreme Court for the updating of the Rules of Appellate Procedure in the light of experience, developing case law, and new legislation.

Committee members and staff counsel also respond to many informal inquiries from lawyers, trial judges and trial court officials.

Questions and suggestions with a potentially greater impact are studied by the Committee as a whole and frequently result in recommendations for the changes in the rules.

The Supreme Court filled all existing Committee vacancies during 1989.

The Committee's principal activity this year involved the consideration, drafting, publication and approval of Recommendation 25, which was submitted to the Supreme Court in September.

The most important changes reflected in this Recommendation involved Rule 311 and Rule 341, and were developed to alleviate the problems resulting from the nagging uncertainty as to what orders are appealable.

The Supreme Court has not yet acted on the Recommendation.

The Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners consists of five members of the bar of this Commonwealth, who serve regular terms of five years each. Primarily, the Board is empowered to "recommend the admission of persons to the bar and the practice of law." Pa. B.A.R. 104(c)(3). In so doing, the Board reviews applications for admission from attorneys licensed in reciprocal states, administers bar examinations twice each year to recent law school graduates and persons admitted to the practice of law in foreign nations, and holds formal hearings during which the character and general qualifications of those seeking admission are determined.

During the early part of 1989, the Board consisted of its Chairman, the Honorable Justin M. Johnson, Judge of the Superior Court; its Vice-Chairman, John W. English, Sr., Esq. and the following members of the Board: Anthony S. Minisi, Esq.; Yolanda G. Barco, Esq. and Harold Rosenn, Esq. As a result of the Chairman's term expiring on April 1, 1989, the Court designated John W. English, Sr., as Chairman and Anthony S. Minisi as Vice-Chairman and appointed the Honorable Eugene H. Clarke, Jr., as a member of the Board.

The office of the Board is located in the Public Ledger Building in Philadelphia. The staff consists of the Secretary/Treasurer, an Assistant Secretary, four Administrative Clerks and two Clerk Typists.

During the 1989 calendar year, the Board processed approximately 3,850 applications for admission to practice law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Of that number, 149 were applications of attorneys from other states seeking admission on motion without sitting for an exam. The balance of the applications were for the July, 1989 and February, 1990 examinations. Application revenues for fiscal year 1989-1990 totaled approximately $768,800.

The application fee for admission to the bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, pursuant to Pa. B.A.R. 203, remains at $175 for a first-time filing and $100 for a re-examination. The application fee for admission to the bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, pursuant to Pa. B.A.R. 204, remains at $500.

Bar Exam	No. Sitting	No. Passing	Percent Passing
Feb. 1989	1,045	704	67.76%
July 1989	2,805	2,262	81.93%

With the July, 1989 bar examination, the Board discontinued the administration of the Multistate Essay Examination (M.E.E.), prepared by the National Conference of Bar Examiners. The Board of Law Examiners returned to the administration of eight Pennsylvania essay questions prepared by the Board's eight Bar Examiners.

During the year, the Board met nine times to determine the character and qualifications of applicants, review proposed essay questions and analyses, approve examination results and set policy. Hearings were held in cases in which applicants' character or qualifications were questioned.

The Civil Procedural Rules Committee is an advisory arm to the Supreme Court, and serves to assist the Court in effecting its constitutional mandate to prescribe general rules governing civil practice and procedure throughout Pennsylvania.

The Civil Procedural Rules Committee was first appointed in 1937 by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania under the Act of June 21, 1937, P.L. 1982, No. 392, 12 P.S. S 61 et seq. (repealed), which authorized the Supreme Court to promulgate rules of procedure governing civil actions at law and in equity for the courts of common pleas and provided for the establishment of "a Procedural Rules Committee...to assist the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in preparation, revision, promulgation, publication and administration" of the rules.

Subsequently, this rule-making power was incorporated into Article V, Section 10(c) of the Constitution of 1968, and the Act of 1937 was supplanted by Section 1722 of the Judicial Code, 42 Pa.C.S. SS 1722. In enacting section 14 of the Judiciary Act, No. 142 of 1976, the General Assembly specifically recognized the Committee by providing that the "enactment of this act shall not affect the existence or membership" of the Committee.

The work of the Committee includes the entire spectrum of civil matters, except those relating to the work of the Orphans' Court and Family Court Divisions. Formerly, within the scope of the Civil Rules Commitee's work, rules relating to the family law actions of protection from abuse, support, custody and divorce have been under review of the Supreme Court's Domestic Relations Committee since its creation by the Court in 1987. As is true of the Civil Rules Committee's work in other civil law matters, the Domestic Relations Committee consists of the preparation and revision of rules governing family law actions.

The Committee is composed of eighteen lawyers and judges appointed by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. The members are appointed for a term of three years and may serve a maximum of three full terms.

The Civil Procedural Rules Committee held five three-day meetings in 1989: three in Pittsburgh and two in Philadelphia.

The terms of membership of James J. Flaherty, Chairman, and Edward J. Balzarini expired on June 30, 1989. Each had served the maximum three three-year terms.

On September 8, 1989 the Supreme Court appointed the Honorable Domenic D. Jerome of Delaware County to be the new Chairman. On October 11, 1989, the Court designated Edwin L. Klett of Allegheny county as Vice-Chairman.

Two new members were appointed to the Committee on October 11, 1989: William P. Bresnahan, Esq. and William R. Caroselli, Esq., both of Allegheny County. The rest of the membership of the Committee remained unchanged.

Recommendation No. 93 proposing to revise the rules governing service of original process and other legal papers by extending to all actions service by a competent adult who is not a party and by mail.

Recommendation No. 94 revising the title of Rule 1602 governing declaratory judgments.

Continuing Responsibilities

The Judicial Code and the Judiciary Act Repealer Act (JARA) have provided the Committee with the basis for much of its work since 1978 and continue to do so. In addition, the Committee's 1990 agenda includes such topics as motion practice, post-trial practice, depositions and discovery, juries and jurors, trial practice and appeals from local administrative agencies.

The Committee continued to furnish assistance to the Supreme Court and to act as a clearinghouse for numerous amendments suggested by members of the bench and bar. The Chairman and Executive Director answered countless inquiries regarding the Rules of Civil Procedure from local courts and attorneys, from courts and attorneys in sister states, and from members and staff of the General Assembly. The staff of the Committee participated in numerous programs of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and various local bar associations and spoke to other groups interested in the Rules of Civil Procedure.

The Board administers the Pennsylvania Client Security Fund, which was established by Order of the Supreme Court dated April 30, 1982 to reimburse clients up to $25,000 for money and/or property which had been stolen from them by their attorneys. Each attorney licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania was assessed $50 to finance the program. The Supreme Court ordered that these limits be changed effective July 1, 1988. The $25,000 ceiling payment on individuals was raised to $50,000 and the annual attorney registration fee was lowered to $20.

The administrative costs of the Board were fully covered by the investment income and the reimbursements paid by some defalcating attorneys.

The cumulative total of claims paid from mid-1982 through 1989 for all years amounts to $4,733,580. This fund was used to pay 648 claimants. During the same period of time, 168 of the 369 lawyers accused of theft or conversions were exonerated of any wrongdoing.

The financial records of the Pennsylvania Client Security Fund are audited at the end of the June 30 fiscal year by the auditing firm of KPMG Peat Marwick. The Board had $6,378,303.78 at the end of calendar year 1989.

In 1989, the Pennsylvania Client Security Fund Board continued with its efforts to bring the existence of the Fund to the attention of all possible claimants. The Fund retained the services of the public relations firm of Auchincloss & Auchincloss to devise a new public relations campaign. The firm created and distributed brochures throughout the Commonwealth. Also, an 800 number was installed and now appears on the Fund's letterhead.

The contact person for the Fund is its Chairman, Walter F. Baczkowski. His address and telephone number are: Walter F. Baczkowski, Esq., Liddle and Adams, Suite 305, 502 Fifth Avenue, McKeesport, PA 15132; (412) 672-9644.

The Criminal Procedural Rules Committee is an advisory arm to the Supreme Court, and serves to assist the Court in effecting its constitutional mandate to prescribe general rules governing criminal practice and procedure throughout Pennsylvania.

Part of the Committee's function entails the ongoing monitoring of developments in criminal procedure in order to highlight those areas in which the Committee might work to revise, streamline, and simplify the Criminal Rules. The Committee's work in 1989, as in other years, included the careful evaluation of a variety of communications from the legal community, the public, and agencies within the criminal justice system.

Recent case law and legislation were also analyzed to determine whether changes in decisional or statutory law necessitate amendments to the Criminal Rules or other action by the Court. As in the past, the Committee communicated regularly with the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts and with the Court's other Committees on a number of procedural matters, with a view to promoting uniformity and consistency among interrelated procedural and administrative matters.

The Committee continued the practice of publishing explanatory Reports on its proposals for new rules and rule amendments in the Pennsylvania Bulletin and in the Atlantic Reporter 2d (Pennsylvania Reporter Series), using this explanatory reporting process to obtain reactions to and recommendations on the proposals from the public as part of the preparation for final submission of the proposals to the Court.

These explanatory Reports constitute the public history of the rules and rule amendments, and as such are useful sources of information on the Committee's intent in developing a given change, and of the precise meaning of various provisions in the rules. In addition, as a service to the public generally and the legal community in particular, the Committee prepared a calendar of the effective dates of new Criminal Procedural Rules and rule amendments adopted by the Court, which was published in a variety of journals and newsletters to provide easy access to Criminal Rule changes and their effective dates.

The majority of the Committee's work in 1989, however, was comprised of an ongoing, extensive review of the Criminal Rules generally. The Committee published several proposals for modification to the Criminal Rules in 1989, made a number of recommendations to the Court involving resentencing procedures in death penalty cases pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S. § 9711(h)(4), and continued its dialogues with the Court and legal community, begun in 1987, concerning post-sentence procedures.

1989 was also a noteworthy year for the Committee because it saw a number of significant Committee recommendations adopted by the Court, including:

1) several new rules in Subchapter 350 governing death penalty cases (verdict slip forms for judge and jury, a rule requiring notice of aggravating circumstances, and a rule revising the order of closing arguments for the sentencing phase of a death penalty case);

2) a new set of rules, Rules 1501-1509, to provide procedures for post-conviction collateral relief;

3) new Rule 9015A and amendments to Rule 9015 concerning preservation of testimony in general, and preservation of testimony by videotape recording;

4) miscellaneous rules and rule amendments governing procedures in Magisterial District Courts and in Philadelphia Municipal Court; and,

5) a general revision of the rules which provide for Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition, including new rules governing ARD in summary cases, and expungement procedures after successful completion of the ARD program.

In short, 1989 has seen the evolution of an enormous amount of work on a variety of issues, and the beginning of long-term analyses in several procedural areas which can fairly be characterized as complex and, if developments in other jurisdictions are indicative, rapidly changing. No doubt 1990 will be as fruitful a year as 1989 was for the Committee and the Court.

Since its creation in November 1972, the Disciplinary Board has been dedicated to the interest of the Bar and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in maintaining a high standard of consistent service to Pennsylvania lawyers, their clients, and to the public in general.

The attorney population has increased dramatically since the inception of the present system. The number of registered attorneys for the 1972-1973 fiscal year was 13,057 as compared to 40,149 registered attorneys for the 1988-1989 fiscal year. The increase in the number of complaints filed with the Board has been attributed to the increase in the number of attorneys. During the year 1989, 3,410 complaints were filed, representing an increase of 77 from the previous year. An average of 284 complaints were filed monthly. Three thousand two hundred and twenty-five (3,225) complaints were disposed of during the year. At the commencement of 1990, 1,359 active complaints were on hand.

The Disciplinary Board held nine executive meetings during the year and considered 50 matters before it for adjudication. Of this number, 42 were referred to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania for final decision. Resignations by respondents which resulted in 18 disbarments on consent and 20 petitions for reinstatement to active status (after being inactive three or more years with no discipline being involved) were forwarded to the Supreme Court.

Pursuant to Rule 208(a)(5) Pa. R.D.E., 34 recommendations of the Office of Disciplinary Counsel and a Reviewing Hearing Committee member for a Private Reprimand were considered by a panel composed of three members of the Disciplinary Board. In addition to the regular scheduled meetings, a three-member panel of Board members heard oral arguments presented before them in 12 cases. During the past year, discipline was imposed in 191 cases. This figure does not include 8 temporary suspensions (Criminal Convictions - Rule 214 and one Emergency Temporary Suspension - Rule 298 (f).) A tabulation of the disciplinary action taken since the year 1973 is set forth on the following page.

Due to the heavy volume of complaints, especially in the District I Office (Philadelphia), the Disciplinary Board appointed three new Hearing Committees in July of 1989. This addition did not sufficiently relieve the burden of the present Hearing Committees, thus the Board found it necessary to appoint three additional Hearing Committees in the District I area on October 24, 1989. This represents a 50% increase in the number of Hearing Committees in District I. There are now 18 Hearing Committees in the District I area (Philadelphia), 6 Hearing Committees in the District II area, 6 Hearing Committees in the District III area, and 12 Hearing Committees in the District IV area (western part of the State).

The activity of the Rules Committee resulted in the Board recommending to the Supreme Court that Rule 206, Pa. R.D.E. be amended to provide for special masters. The Supreme Court, by its Order dated December 6, 1989, amended Rule 206, Pa. R.D.E. permitting the Disciplinary Board to assign a special master instead of a hearing committee to conduct a formal proceeding where it appears that a proceeding may be protracted and should be tried continuously from day to day until concluded. A special master is appointed by the Board from a list of eligible retired Pennsylvania judges.

Article V, Section 10(c) of the Constitution of 1968 and Section 1722(a) (1) of the Judicial Code

Suite 1428
1515 Market Street
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Article V, Section 10(c) of the Constitution of 1968 and Section 1722(a) (1) of the Judicial Code give the Supreme Court "the power to prescribe and modify general rules governing...practice, procedure and the conduct of all courts...." In furtherance of this mandate, the Supreme Court has promulgated Rules of Civil Procedure governing the family law actions of protection from abuse, support, custody and divorce or annulment of marriage.

Originally, the responsibility for recommending new rules and revisions to the rules governing the family law actions was with the Civil Procedural Rules Committee. Consequently, the rules governing these actions are part of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

In 1984 the Supreme Court appointed a Domestic Relations Section of the Civil Procedural Rules Committee which was devoted to this task. The present Domestic Relations Committee was established by Order of the Supreme Court dated June 30, 1987 and has assumed the responsibility for rules of procedure governing the family law actions. The members of the former Domestic Relations Section were named as the members of the new Committee.

The Committee is composed of seven lawyers and judges appointed by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. The members are appointed for a term of three years and may serve a maximum of three full terms.

The Committee held four meetings in 1989. The February and September meetings were held in Pittsburgh and the July and December meetings were held in Philadelphia.

1989 Recommendations

The Committee's recommendations to the Supreme Court during 1989 are listed below. A status of these recommendations follows.

Recommendation No. 78 proposes a new rule of civil procedure, a new Orphans' Court rule, and new and amended rules of appellate procedure governing the prompt disposition of actions for custody of minor children and certain proceedings pursuant to the Adoption Act. This recommendation previously had been published to the bench and bar as proposed Rule of Judicial Administration 1902.

Recommendation No. 1, adopted February 7, 1989, amended Rule 1920.2 governing venue in divorce actions and added Rule 1920.6 governing multiple actions in divorce.

Recommendation No. 2, adopted September 29, 1989, prohibited the practice of law by hearing officers in support and masters in divorce employed by a judicial district before like officers employed in the same judicial district.

Recommendation No. 3, adopted September 6, 1989, added Rules 1910.16-1 et seq. governing uniform statewide support guidelines as required by the Federal Child Support Enforcement Act of 1984 and Pennsylvania Act No. 66 of 1985.

Recommendation No. 4, adopted September 29, 1989, amended Rule 1910.16 to give the court the discretion whether or not to allocate support awarded to a spouse and child, in order to give maximum benefit to the parties in view of procedural and tax considerations.

Recommendation No. 5 proposes to amend the rules governing the action of divorce or for annulment of marriage by conforming the rules to amendments to the Divorce Code by Act No. 1988-13 and by providing for a pretrial statement in divorce actions.

Recommendation No. 6 proposes to amend Rule 1920.52 governing the decision of the court and post-trial practice in divorce actions.

Continuing Responsibilities

The work of the Domestic Relations Committee continues in the areas of divorce, support, custody and protection from abuse. Much of the work of the Committee during the coming year will result from legislation enacted in 1988: amendments to the Divorce Code (Act No. 1988-13), amendments to the Protection from Abuse Act (Act No. 1988-56), and amendments to the support law (Act No. 1988-35).

Legal Authorization:

Article V, Section 18 of the PA Constitution

Suite 500
225 Market Street
Harrisburg, PA 17101

As prescribed by Pennsylvania's Constitution, the Judicial Inquiry and Review Board consists of nine members as follows: "(a)...three judges of the courts of common pleas from different judicial districts and two judges of the Superior Court, all of whom shall be selected by the Supreme Court; and two non-judge members of the bar of the Supreme Court and two non-lawyer electors, all of whom shall be selected by the Governor."

"(b) The members shall serve for terms of four years, provided that a member, rather than his successor, shall continue to participate in any hearing in progress at the end of his term. A vacancy on the board shall be filled by the respective appointing authority for the balance of the term. The respective appointing authority may remove a member only for cause. No member shall serve more than four consecutive years; he may be reappointed after a lapse of one year. Annually the members of the board shall elect a chairman. The board shall act only with the concurrence of a majority of its members."

The Constitution prescribes the function of the Judicial Inquiry and Review Board and the procedures regarding judicial discipline to be, in part, as follows:

"(d) Under the procedure prescribed herein, any justice or judge may be suspended, removed from office or otherwise disciplined for violation of section seventeen of this article, misconduct in office, neglect of duty, failure to perform his duties, or conduct which prejudices the proper administration of justice or brings the judicial office into disrepute, and may be retired for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties."

"(e) The board shall keep informed as to matters relating to grounds for suspension, removal, discipline, or compulsory retirement of justices or judges. It shall receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source pertaining to such matters, and shall make such preliminary investigations as it deems necessary."

"(f) The board, after such investigation, may order a hearing concerning the suspension, removal, discipline or compulsory retirement of a justice or judge..."

"(g) If, after the hearing, the board finds good cause therefor, it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the suspension, removal discipline or compulsory retirement of the justice or judge."

"(h) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the board's proceedings on the law and facts and may permit the introduction of additional evidence. It shall order suspension, removal, discipline or compulsory retirement, or wholly reject the recommendation, as it finds just and proper....All papers filed with and proceedings before the board shall be confidential but upon being filed by the board in the Supreme Court, the record shall lose its confidential character. The filing of papers with and the giving of testimony before the board shall be privileged."

At the beginning of 1989, 162 matters were pending before the Board and during the year an additional 257 inquires were initiated either as the result of the receipt of a complaint or as a result of the Board's action itself. Therefore, a total of 419 matters were before the Board during the year 1989. At the end of the year, approximately 173 matters were pending.

Two matters were referred to the Supreme Court with recommendations for formal discipline. Four of five recommendations that had been referred to the Supreme Court by the Board were acted upon by the Court in 1989. In two of the cases the Court found that no misconduct had occurred and rejected the Board's recommendations. In the other two, the Court found misconduct and ordered the removal of the respondents.

The Board dismissed 21 matters following formal investigation as either unfounded or because there was no evidence of misconduct and 223 matters were rejected following preliminary investigation because they were frivolous or were otherwise without merit.

During the year the Board issued 42 letters of inquiry to members of the judiciary pursuant to Rule 1(b) of the Rules of Procedure, 2 sets of formal charges were authorized by the Board and 6 formal hearings were conducted. Additionally, 1 matter was administratively closed and 1 matter was closed following the resignation of the subject of the inquiry.

Title 42, PA CSA, Section 31
Title 42, PA CSA, Section 3118

1001 Philadelphia Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Article V, Section 12, of the PA Constitution requires Judges of Philadelphia Traffic Court and District Justices to be members of the Bar of the Supreme Court or to have completed a course of training and instruction in the duties of their respective offices and to have passed an examination prior to assuming office. Such courses and examinations shall be as provided by law. The Judicial Code (42 PA CSA, Section 2131) provides for the Minor Judiciary Education Board to consist of seven members.

Pursuant to Statute Title 42, PA CSA Chapter 31, the Minor Judiciary Education Board is responsible for the instruction and certification of individuals intending to become District Justices, Philadelphia Traffic Court Judges, and Philadelphia Bail Commissioners. In addition, the Board conducts continuing education for District Justices and Philadelphia Bail Commissioners. The Board approves the curriculum, appoints and evaluates instructors, establishes course content, reviews all tests, and issues certificates to successful program participants.

During 1989, the approved subjects for the four-week certifying course included Criminal Law and Procedure, Civil Law and Procedures, Rules of Evidence, Judicial Ethics, Human Behavior, Motor Vehicle Law, District Justice Office Administration and the District Justice Office Clerical Procedures Manual, Arrest/Search and Seizure, and the PA Drug/Device and Cosmetic Act. Eighty-one percent of the individuals taking the certifying course were certified by the Board.

Three persons were certified as Judges for Philadelphia Traffic Court after having successfully completed the Philadelphia Traffic Court certifying course, which included Criminal Practice and Procedure, Judicial Ethics, Rules of Evidence, and Motor Vehicle Law classes.

Continuing education for all of the Commonwealth's District Justices and Philadelphia Bail Commissioners is mandated by the Judicial Code (42 PA CSA Section 3118). This year during the 13 scheduled weeks the following courses made up the 32 required course hours for District Justices: Review and Update of Civil and Criminal Procedure, Crimes' Code, Motor Vehicle Code, Protection from Abuse Act, Ethnic Intimidation, Personnel, and Responsibilities of the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts and Statewide Automation Overview. The courses were attended by 536 District Justices, 17 Senior District Justices, 12 County Court Administrators, and 4 staff members of the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts. The one week mandatory course for Philadelphia Bail Commissioners consisted of the following: Update and Review of the PA Crimes Code, Drug/Device and Cosmetic Act, Search/Seizure, PA Criminal Rules, Protection from Abuse Act, Court Procedures and Bail Rules and Philadelphia Administrative Practices. The course was completed by all six Bail Commissioners.

In addition to conducting educational courses at its facility in Chambersburg, the Minor Judiciary Education Board participated in the following:

a) Appointed and funded a committee to review the courses of instruction conducted at its school. The review includes the certifying and continuing education courses for District Justices, Philadelphia Traffic Court Judges, and Philadelphia Bail Commissioners. The committee met five times and presented a final report to the Minor Judiciary Education Board. The Board will review the report using the committee's recommendations as guidelines for future educational improvements.

b) Produced a criminal, civil, and motor vehicle update reference manual which was distributed to all district justices.

c) Participated on the committee for the implementation of statewide automation of the minor court system.

d) Participated in the planning of education for Constables in the Commonwealth by sending a delegate to the PA Constable Association meetings.

e) Participated on the PA Association of Court Management's Education and Training Committee.

f) Provided funds for staff to participate in the Institute of Court Management's course, "Designing and Delivering Effective Presentations."

g) Provided staff assistance to the minor judiciary, Court Administrators, President Judges and related court agencies in answering questions pertaining to the Board, the minor courts system, and the Board's courses of instruction.

h) The Minor Judiciary Education Board also has a staff person who serves on the Joint Family Law Council to provide information on the minor courts system.

During 1989 the Committee met in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. The Committee completed work relating to proposed Supreme Court Orphans' Court Rules 5.6 and 6.12 relating to notice of beneficial interests in estates and termination reports by personal representatives. These proposed rules were advertised in the Pennsylvania Bulletin and comments and suggested changes were received from interested persons throughout the Commonwealth. After consideration of these comments, the proposed rules were redrafted and again approved by the Committee.

The proposed rules were submitted to the Supreme Court in December of 1989, reviewed by the Supreme Court, and returned to the Committee for further suggested changes. The Committee also submitted to the Supreme Court a recommendation that Rule 6.5 - Filing With the Register of Wills be repealed and replaced with Rule 6.6 which calls for filing of accounts, etc. with the Clerk of the Orphans' Court.

The Committee currently has under consideration amendments to the adoption rules and rules relating to non-profit corporations.

It should also be noted that the Chairman, Judge Paul R. Zavarella, is a member of the Joint State Government Commission's Advisory Committee on Decedents' Estates Laws. In that capacity, Judge Zavarella discussed proposed Orphans' Court rules with the Advisory Committee and agreed to cooperate with them in promulgating either rules or legislation regarding the needs of estates' beneficiaries, the courts and practitioners.

Supreme Court Order, 1968

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court Committee for Proposed Standard Jury Instructions was first appointed in 1968 by Chief Justice John C. Bell for the express purpose of developing pattern jury charges for the assistance of both the bench and the bar. The Committee's mission from the outset has been to assist the administration of justice in both civil and criminal court proceedings through the availability of model jury instructions. As a result, comprehensive volumes of suggested civil and criminal jury instructions have been published by the Committee. The suggested instructions guide judges and lawyers and support research and preparation of instructions during the trial process. The ongoing purpose of the Committee is to monitor developments in civil and criminal law and to recommend and to publish revised and new instructions as required.

In developing updates to the civil and criminal instructions, the Committee through its Subcommittees makes every effort to ensure that the instructions are useful to judges and lawyers and at the same time comprehensible to jurors. To assist jurors in their understanding of the principles of law, the lanquage of each instruction is reviewed by the Committee's Socio-Legal Subcommittee.

In 1984, the Civil Instructions Subcommittee published the first supplement to the Civil Jury Instructions. Since that time, the Subcommittee has been researching and drafting revised and new jury instructions. A second supplement is now ready for distribution. The fifth supplement to the Criminal Jury Instructions was published in 1988. Research for the sixth supplement to the Criminal Instructions continues under the direction of the Reporter to the Subcommittee and publication is expected in 1990.

Since 1979, the Pennsylvania Bar Institute has provided all administrative and publishing support for the Committee. The Institute also provides all of the funding necessary to sustain this project. Project costs are underwritten through the sale and distribution of the published suggested standard instructions.

Members of the bench and bar are urged to provide their comments and suggestions to the Committee. Such comments are of great assistance to the Reporters and Subcommittee members in their ongoing efforts to ensure the instructions reflect the current state of the law in Pennsylvania. Those interested may write to Roger B. Meilton, Esq., c/o Pennsylvania Bar Institute, 104 South Street, P.O. Box 1027, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17108-1027, or by calling either 800/932-4637 or 717/233-5774.

COURT FINANCES - Fiscal Years 1988-89, 1989-90

Funding for the Unified Judicial System derives from both state and county appropriations. The state pays the salaries for all judicial officers as well as the personnel and operating costs of the entire appellate court system, including the Committees and Boards of the Supreme Court and the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts. Table I provides a breakdown of state-funded expenditures for fiscal years 1988-89 and 1989-90. Of the total state government expenditures for fiscal year 1989-90, administrative costs for the Judiciary accounted for approximately one-half of one percent. Figure A shows the distribution of expenditures across the three branches of government.

The Commonwealth also provides reimbursement to the counties for costs incurred in support of the trial courts of limited jurisdiction. Specifically, payments are made to reimburse counties for a percentage of juror costs incurred beyond the third day of service in a trial or grand jury proceeding. In addition, counties are reimbursed for personnel and operating costs associated with the administration of the district justice offices. Reimbursement is based on a flat rate established by the General Assembly for each authorized district justice position. During FY 1988-89 and FY 1989-90 the flat rate was $30,000 and $33,000, respectively, per district justice position. Finally, the counties are reimbursed for the personnel and administration of the Courts of Common Pleas. Like the district justice reimbursement grant, payments to the counties are based on a flat rate per common pleas position; however, the General Assembly also requires that counties spend an amount at least equal to the flat rate, per judge, which was $70,000 during both fiscal years. Table II identifies the amount of reimbursement provided to each county, by grant program, for fiscal years 1988-89 and 1989-90. One exception to the current funding pattern is the Pittsburgh Magistrates Court, where all costs are borne by the City of Pittsburgh.

The Unified Judicial System is a source of considerable revenue to local and state government. For example, fees collected by the appellate courts, the Minor Judiciary Education Board and the State Board of Law Examiners, are listed in Table III. Appropriated by the General Assembly, these fees are used to support state-funded court operations.

Although exact figures are not available, the court system raises millions of dollars in revenue for local municipalities. Depending on the police department (local or state) from which a citation is issued, a portion of the fines collected for traffic violations under the vehicle code, violations of local ordinances, and certain violations of summary offenses, among others, are disbursed to local political subdivisions after adjudication within the Unified Judicial System.

The counties are also a recipient of court collected fines, fees, and costs. Fees are generated in connection with the commencement of actions, the filing of liens, appeals and accounts, etc. On an annual basis, the collections amount to tens of millions of dollars. The monies are collected by courts at all levels of the system.

Finally, a portion of the revenues collected by the courts is earmarked for the state. Some of these funds are program specific - e.g. Pennsylvania's Emergency Medical Fund and the Crime Victims' Compensation Board. Other state-designated revenues are used, through Act 64 of 1987, to provide funding for the Statewide Judicial Computer Project. Also, other monies collected, such as motor vehicle fines, revert to the state general fund.
